The Premises:

I have been to GFE maybe 7 or 8 times before, and several other parlours too. GFE is without doubt the best: nice facilities, friendly staff (both reception and escorts), great website kept up-to-date, the only parlour I've been to that insists on a shower beforehand (so obviously they care about cleanliness and take pride in it), good selection of very beautiful and mostly English girls and the prices are reasonable too. It simply ticks every box! Excellent value for money.

The Lady:

Candice is a bombshell: late 20s or early 30s, long black straight hair against milky white skin, fake boobs but nicely in proportion with the rest of her body (I didn't previously think I would like implants but apparently I do!), photos are accurate (just a shame the face is blurred out), tasty Yorkshire lass all round!

The Story:

I have seen Candice several times now, safe to say she is my favourite. I have some pretty kinky fantasies, including one or two I thought even a working girl might balk at, but whatever filth I came out with she just lapped it up (before I lapped her up hehe), hence why I keep coming back for more. Why take a chance with someone you don't know when you're guaranteed a great time with your fave girl? We've done oral both ways, fantasy roleplays, mutual masturbation, watersports, general filthy chat and I've soaped her up in the shower once or twice too. And she is always up for general chit-chat afterwards, not a clock-watcher, really friendly girl. You won't regret a visit, whatever you're into.
