The Premises:

Edgeware Road, a few minutes from the underground. Down some fairly unpleasant steps to the basement door, but safe. Pleasant enough flat when you get inside. Large bath and shower.

The Lady:

As previously described. Absolutely lovely. The new pictures are much better than previous. A little more of her than many Thai ladies, but firm and sensuous. Perfect.

The Story:

This is my first report, as a reaction to the last rather negative report about Elsa. I have seen her several times because I have never experienced any of the negatives that were described.

Although I hadn't seen her for several weeks she greeted me enthusiasm and obvious recognition. A passionate and full kiss, and then a beer. She was wearing a tight elasticated net dress inviting me to caress whilst standing and exchanging kisses. The dress came off, as did my clothes. She led me to the bathroom where the bath (requested in advance) was ready.

As usual, I was gently soaped all over. Elsa's knees were under me, raising my interesting bits above the water. They were given gentle but persistent oral attention, using a mouthful of warm water to great effect. Elsa then moved to give a full body rub whilst my hands strayed down her back and between her legs.

This went on for some time and was just delightful.

Eventually the time had come to move back to the bedroom. Elsa applied oil to herself (and to me) making her even more wonderful to touch. Then to the bed and an opportunity for RO. I suspect that her initial moans and gasps were a little artificial, but there was clear evidence that she was enjoying herself as we continued. OWO followed (wonderful) and then 69. Eventually she dressed me and moved on top for the finale.

Elsa was engaged throughout, making me feel as if she was as excited to be with me as I was to be with her (which of course I doubt). We didn't have long conversations about the meaning of life.

Whilst her English is pretty good, it isn't that good, but I wasn't there for intellectual debate. There were no distracting phone calls, and no clock watching.

My experiences with Thai girls have been variable, but Elsa is top of the league. I hope and expect to see her several more times before she returns home.

I have never had any problem booking (usually a day in advance) - although after this review I suspect I may have difficulties in future.
