The Premises:

Nice apartment in the Hub area surrounded by bars and restaurants but with a discrete restaurant. Apartment well presented as usual and a good solid bed. Job done.

The Lady:

Gemma is absolutely delightful. Bleach blonde hair, incredible gym figure and a lovely tan. The pictures on the website are a good indication. Gemma has all the right assets to please both ass men and boob men. I'm both and was very happy. She is older than her profile says. Nearer 30 I'd say but with a body like Gemma's, who cares?

The Story:

After a great time with Serena a few days ago I was in the mood for a bit of blonde and had been looking at Gemma's pictures for a while. I got to the apartment about 10 minutes early and buzzed in and made my way up. Gemma let me in wearing a towel but said I'd have to wait as I was so early. Fair enough. She got me a glass of water.

When Gemma returned I apologised to her and she explained that correct timing was really important as there are people coming and going and for discretion they don't want people bumping into each other. She accepted my apology and I had a quick shower.

When I returned to the bedroom the towel was gone and Gemma was there looking stunning in very sexy black underwear (I do like it when it's left on for me to remove when ready). Gemma is lovely. Fantastic figure with a flat stomach and lovely tan. Her bleach blonde hair and naughty look on her face was a real turn on.

We set about some standing kissing and cuddling until Gemma turned around for me to rub myself up and down her peachy arse. My arms were round her running up and down her ribs from her ample breasts to her toned tummy and sexy knickers. Fantastic. Now on to my lap!

After a bit more kissing and exploring I pulled Gemma on to the bed with me, removed her bra revealing perfect, medium sized, firm breasts and she started to make her way down to my already stiff cock. This gets said a lot but Gemma's technique is one of the very best I've experienced. Loads of licking and sucking my shaven balls and a very clever technique for oral (which I enjoyed bare after being given the choice). She has a steady rhythm but varies the pattern to great effect! It really does need to be experienced to be believed. I told her I could enjoy that all day but it was my turn to taste her!

I put Gemma on all fours and started to kiss, lick and gently spank her arse and pulled her knickers down. It was brilliant! I liked her from behind for a few minutes and Gemma made all the right noises. I flipped her over and buried my head between her legs. Again, Gemma made all the right noises as well as spasms and twitches. I got so lost doing this I finally realised that I was 20 minutes into my 30 and we were still on foreplay.

Gemma covered me up using the mouth technique and I pushed her back flat. I slowly and gently entered her until we were a nice fit. I steadily picked up the pace and Gemma responded perfectly with nice moans and saying "oh, fuck!" repeatedly when I hit top speed. Aware of the time I asked for a bit of cowgirl which was brilliant. Again, Gemma seemed to love it when I went full speed. Her boobs are great to watch bouncing and a perfect handful.

Finally I flipped her over to finish with doggy which I did from an angle so I could savour the site of her magnificent body taking a pounding. I went like a jackhammer for a few minutes before pushing super deep and unloading. What a session! To top it off Gemma let me stay inside of her until I was ready to retreat while so many girls pull you out immediately. Although we were really tight for time I only had a gentle reminder from Gemma about this and I was respectful enough to try not to overrun.

A very quick assisted cleanup followed by a nice goodbye and I was out the door having used every second of my 30 minutes and trying to catch my breath. I have learned a bit more about the importance of good timekeeping for these girls but more than that, I have found a top marks beauty that I won't forget for a very long time.
