The Lady:

She struck me as quite different from the photos on the website as as her hair was bleached and more curvier in person. Height is the same but she is also older than she appears in the photos, MILF category. She was facially very pretty for her age, good smile, happy to please attitude, but I honestly see no resemblance to the photos on the website whatsoever.

The Story:

I have a thing for English girls, and I am not keen on spending £400 plus an hour on them so I go with the house of divines for my personal pleasure. There is quite a lot of English girls to go through and I will go down on them one by one eventually, so I was set to explore Johanna.

I was greeted with a hugging dress that matched her tanned skin and blondish hair. For what I needed tonight, she was perfect. She smelled amazing - jimmy choo, Dfk on entry, slipped out of her dress to reveal these cute b breasts that I was keen to play with. With only 30 minutes, I knew I would have no time to go down on her, so I started with kissing, nipping her neck then the pillow bbbj. She was wonderful for that, deep throat, wet and long the way I like it with her hands on my chest, I would have cum there and then had I not controlled myself. This is always the best part of every fuck.

She rode me for a bit, followed by missionary, then I asked if she can finish me by hand which she did clipping one leg in between my legs dfk, while giving me the hand relief after applying some gel, it was so wet, me fingering her in between and the penultimate explosion on her body.

She loved the size of my cock(22cm), she was a bit scared of doggy with that size but I assured her that surprisingly to everyone it's not actually my thing, and I don't find doggy to be a hot thing for most occasions - she was pleased.

I like the chats with English girls, and especially 26 plus women, the conversation is always richer than young girls. I don't think the house girls do out calls actually, but I would love to talk to her again as she is quite mature and we do click :)
