The Premises:

This was my first time at Karens, I must have driven past it about 100 times and never even noticed it. It is about 2 minutes down the road from Cherrys opposite a now boarded up pub. It is on a corner next to a cake shop and has a rear entrance. If you drive down the side of the building there is a small parking area however this was also being used by some taxi drivers so if you are local or shy it might be better to park elsewhere and walk up to the door. Inside it was clean and safe if a little to hot in the room. It was decorated like I imagined all parlours be before I ever visited one. Lots of mirrors in the room and very dimly lit with a sort of red light effect. When you come out of the place it takes a while for your eyes to adjust to the daylight. There was a shower in the room and dodgy porn on the tv.

The Lady:

I had chosen to visit Karens on finding out that they had 4 ladies working and better still 2 19 year olds. Kelly is 19-20 years old long dark hair quite pretty, tall with a slim toned body. To be honest she was not my first choice but apparently Kimberly, who was also 19 and more busty was just about to go into the room with someone else but I did not mind as it just gives me a reason to go back. Also another of the ladies working was Monique who although I have not met her before looked a lot like the pictures I have seen of Monique who used to hold the parties in Manchester.

The Story:

I waited quite a long time in the room before I was joined by Kelly but that seems to happen wherever you go.

Kelly was pleasant and chatty as she gave me a back massage.

When I turned over I was not hard as she had not yet touched me down there so I was concerned when she reached for a condom and tried to put it on. She put the end of the condom on and started to suck me so that I sort of grew into it which was nice but I thought that Karens girls did not include in the ?40?

As she continued to suck me she let me play around with her and put my fingers inside her.

I then climbed on top of her to finish off missionary position, no kissing allowed.

I will probably go to karens again but try to see different girls, not that kelly did anything wrong but i punt for variety. I would recommend kelly to others as below.
