The Premises:

There are enough reports on Aquarius now not to need to go into details. It's one of the nicest places I have been to in Manchester - or anywhere come to that.

Having missed out on Zara last week, I called at 11:00 to book for 5. Should have caught the vibes that the booking hadn't really clicked, so when I turned up, Maz had just let someone in for an hour!! I met Zara properly, and I was determined to stay!! Read a spiritual book (honest) while waiting.

The Lady:

Zara is fabulous. Described as 19 with short auburn hair, 34-22-34 and a "wild child". All of that is undoubtable true, she's also a very genuine and charming person. It was a joy from all ways round to spend the time with her

The Story:

Started off with a shower, then in the Jacuzzi. Zara joined me a little after. She has a delightful body - says it needs a bit of toning, but she looked perfect to me.

The previous guy had left after 30 minutes - mad man - so we were together from about quarter to 6. As soon as we'd got on the bed, Zara made a point of saying that we were OK till 7 in compensation for the booking mix up.

I had the best time ever - absolutely ever. I'm not going into details, because I don't want too much of a queue to form, but this lady is my all time great.
