The Story:

Bit of a mix up with the agency, who I reckon had thought that the booking was for Wednesday, for some unknown reason. However, they were efficient and managed to get Chloe although she was in a rush.

I asked the agency to ensure Chloe dressed casually and she did, with a nice top and jeans, which I like. I have never used this agency before, but will say they were very efficient and helpful.

Chloe can talk ! After getting her life story, I was keen to let those norks loose, so out they popped - again visually very nice, but unfortunately very hard. A lot of gals tend to keep their panties on initially, but Chloe whacked em off immediately and started to suck my down belows, even before a kiss - when she did kiss it was very passionate. Her technique was average with a little attention to the plumage region (uncovered). A prolonged lettuce licking ensued, then more bbbj, clit rubbing with my cock, then on with the necessities for a very frantic shag. I was rather conscious of the time, knowing that she would be shooting off shortly after I had shot off, which lessened the enjoyment somewhat. Although her pappage was not to my personal liking, I must say that she has nips like liqourice torpedoes.

Tanks depleted she headed for the bathroom, got dressed and left, apologising for the rush.

Chloe is a nice gal, very bubbly and has a great body (apart from the hard coconuts), but certainly not a justifiable ?150 punt. There are much better for a lot less in the NE. I would guess that had she not had other matters to attend to the experience would have been better. I did actually get the full hour but it was the psychological rush that spoiled the sesh.

I wouldn't recommend her as a ?150 punt, maybe ?130 maximum.
