The Premises:

It's all been said before, very good, but it's a pity about the waiting area. It is a bit cramped especially with the amount of traffic that goes through it. Unfortunately I can't see what they can do about it. There's no real room to expand.

Entrance is reasonably concealed and parking nearby no problem

The Lady:

Morgan, mid to late 20's, 5ft 8ins, good looking and a lovely athletic body. Exciting, active and sexy with it.

The Story:

A few months back I was a complete novice at punting and in all honesty I'm probably a bit too old. However after several trips to Sandy's and a couple of other places I have become a little more confident and less uneasy, mainly due to skills of the WGs. On previous visits to Sandy's I had noticed Morgan and thought how lovely and exciting she appeared. So I plucked up courage, to see her. Courage was necessary because a few months ago on the messageboard, somebody had complained that a friend of his wasn't very happy with his visit to Morgan at Sandy's. Apparently it was his first punt and was very nervous. Whereupon Merv replied that he should have consulted the receptionist first as Morgan was not really ideal for a first timer, 'She was a bit of a Tigress who'd eat almost anybody'. In spite of those words I thought I'd give her a try, after all you can only go once and what better way to go. She really appealed to me.

I told her I was a bit nervous and not all that experienced and she could see I wasn't young, and you know she suddenly switched from 'Tigress' to 'Pussycat'. She couldn't have been nicer, her GFE was excellent and, I now don't have to ask why they call her 'Lizard Tongue', wow!! Her oral was exceptional and she was so responsive with reverse oral. She must be mind blowing when she gets really raunchy. I can't praise WGs enough, not just Morgan who really was brilliant, but also others who can give you a wonderful time and make you feel great. I'm sure Morgan would prefer a younger, good looking and more with it punter, sex olympics springs to mind, but none of it, she did her job brilliantly.

The thing is to tell the WG before you start how you feel, what you like and dislike and she'll treat you accordingly. It's a skillful business pleasing people and WGs are very good at it. I've really come to appreciate the work they do and feel much better for having experienced some of them, and Morgan is top drawer!.

I'll be back just after pension day!
