The Premises:

My hotel room.

The Lady:

Her details and pics as illustrated are accurate. She was punctual but I felt that her dress sense could have been better - with long legs like she has a skirt would have given her greater sex appeal. I noticed she switched off her mobile phone after making the customary contact with the agency.

The Story:

Very friendly and accomodating with hardly any time being wasted before getting down to business. With average kissing and owo I was beginning to have my doubts but shortly into 69 I was soon to realise something special was happening and raising myself slightly and peering up between our bodies I could see that she was treating the old boy as if he was 'all meat, a real treat' - needless to say the session became an extended one!

Sex was good and she gave me a superb hand finish which she continued to the last drop - ensuring a good facial, plenty on her tits and the overflow landing on the duvet - I just hope the hotel does not invoice me with the cleaning bill!
