The Premises:

A nice, clean flat in Earl's Court. Couple of bathrooms, towells, sarongs, food etc...

The Lady:

The legendary Kaylee brought together three stunning girls. Each possessed great looks and charm, wit and a voracious appetite. Yet each was very different.

The Story:

I enjoyed every second, especially..... well, she knows, and I'm not going to say.

Whatever you do, don't go to a Sacred Rose Party. I don't want anyone to know how wonderful they are.

So I won't be telling you any more about the fabulous girls, great sounds (courtesy of James, who resists the temptation to demonstrate too much air guitar lest we punters grow distracted from other activities) or the delightful atmosphere. I also won't mention that Kaylee has the balance just right - not too many blokes queuing up for a quick shag, but just enough to make the thing feel like a great party.

Now go away and find another party to go to!
