The Lady:

Helen is a very attractive lady. I'm no judge of age, but she is definately in the prime of life, with a wonderful body, amazing boobs and the smoothest shaven snatch I've buried my face in.

The Story:

Helen is one of the superstars of Punternet with loads of reviews and never a bad one. As a fairly early reader of Punternet, prior even to my first 'punt' I was captivated by her from her first review, and have been longing to visit her since then. However this was the first time I've been up to Telford for years. By some imaginative time accounting I managed to free up some time so I could go and see her.

Helen cheerfully admits to being ageist - in the best possible way. She always asks your age when you first make contact. Young men she is convinced are ill-mannered and inconsiderate lovers. At 43 I suspect I am a bit on the young side for her, but thankfully at the end of our encounter she did say she'd see me again.

Helen greeted me at the door in a short skirt and blouse. I am usually pretty nervous and tongue tied at the start of a visit, but Helen broke the ice by pulling me into her arms with a deep french kiss, while groping my dick through my trousers. I responded eagerly, and felt her beautiful boobs which were braless under her blouse. In no time at all Helen had my cock out, and was kneeling in front of me to suck it. I still hadn't got three feet from the front door!

After a little while I got her up again so I could open her blouse and nuzzle on her amazing tits. While doing this I pulled up her skirt to find hold up stockings, but no knickers! (Helen claims she never wears them).

Having felt her generous ass, I moved round to the front to grope between her legs, and found her pussy was shaven as bald and smooth as an egg. This I couldn't resist, I got her to sit splay legged on the stairs and buried my face in it.

After some glorious muff-diving, Helen suggest we go upstairs. By now I had lost all my clothes except my underpants, and Helen with her skirt round her waist, and her blouse open was leaving little to the imagination. In the bed room we quickly got her stripped down to her stockings, and onto the bed with her legs open, so I could eat her out some more. I complemented lips and tongue with a finger pushed up her tight wet pussy, then one gently pushed up her bottom. Helen was obviously enjoying all this attention, but I wanted some too, so scrambled over her into a 69 so she could suck my dick while I ate her pussy.

With my tongue attacking her clit a finger of my left hand deep in her pussy, and a finger of my right deep in her arse, Helen seemed in heaven. So was I as she gave me a great blow job. I tried to hold back, but in no time I was coming hard in her mouth. Helen eagerly gobbled up all my spunk, then started to moan she was coming too. It was a much fun feeling her lovely body writhing with delight as she climaxed as when I came myself.

To my surprise - and our mutual delight - I recovered my erection very quickly, and we both agreed it was time for the main course. This was delayed by some ineptitude on my part with the condom. I usually get the girl to cover me up, because I always make a mess of things, but Helen has such long nails, she doesn't like to because she is scared of ripping the condom. Finally I was suitably attired and getting between Helen's legs.

Helen likes it on her back, and she is wonderful this way, using her hands to hold her legs high and wide, giving perfect access to her beautiful snatch. She encouraged me to fuck her hard and deep and after a good long pounding seemed to come again. Then I came too even harder than before.

We spend a while cuddling and kissing and chatting, until finally thoughts turned to having a little more fun. Helen got astride me for a 69, sucking my cock back to life while I slobbered with delight over her lovely pussy.

Pretty soon we were both ready and having managed the cover-up job with less fuss this time, soon this beautiful woman was sitting astride me impaled on my cock.

Each position in which you have sex with Helen has its own delights, and with her on top you have great access to her lovely boobs, and can also stroke and caress and squeeze her lovely buttocks, while she rides you doing lovely things to your cock with her tight little pussy. Helen likes it this way too, and was soon enjoying herself even more, when I ventured to push a finger up her arse again. In very little time she told me she was going to come again, and speeding up to a gallop she rode me hard until she did to our mutual delight.

She slumped down ontop of me for a well earned rest. After a while I thought she might be ready for the last lap, and wriggled my finger - still deep in her ass - and asked if she'd like to try something a little larger up there.

"Oh yes! " was her eager response, and after a little discussion on positions, she was laid out on her back, holding her ankles to pull her legs up and apart. "Stick it straight in! " she urged. Well I wasn't going to argue! I pushed my cock firmly against her little anus, and with remarkable ease slid into her hot and very tight nether passage. Then she was encouraging me to give her a arse a long hard fuck.

I love straight sex, but have to confess that taking a girl anally really adds something extra. Helen obviously thinks so too, because soon she seemed to be coming again. At this stage my senses were reeling, and as we took a little breather to let her recover I could hardly articulate my desire she turn around so I could fuck her from behind. With indefagible enthusiasm the lovely woman was over and on her hands and knees before me in a trice. This was the first real chance I'd had to admire Helen's lovely bum. She has lush creamy white buttocks, an absolute dream for a rear entry fuck, and the icing on the cake was I was going in by the back door!

Once more I pushed my straining cock past her tight anus deep into her bowels and began pounding away at her glorious bottom. I always try to be gentle when taking a girl anally, but Helen was keen to have it hard and deep, and I was as eager as her. Having already come twice, it took an age to build up to my climax, and it was hard work to keep up the frantic rhythm Helen seemed to like best. I had to take a couple of breathers, but eventually I was there and exploded in a titanic fashion deep in her entrails.

I slumped across her exhausted. I could have gone to sleep for the rest of the day. We lay on the bed afterwards and had another long cuddle. Then weak at the knees I hunted around for my clothes strewn about the bedroom, stairs and hall and got dressed. Helen got dressed too, in the skimpy fashion she favours and send me on my way with a kiss and a cuddle and with a grin all over my face.

A stunning experience and one I'd love to repeat as soon as I can. I felt as if Helen had even more fun that I did - and I had as much as I've ever had.

Well if you did Helen, I feel honoured to have been of service! Damn If only I could get to Telford more often!
