The Lady:

Sophie is a petite (5ft)dark blonde with an incredible figure and lovely face.She was not too extravagantly dressed as she was visting a housing estate,she reminded me of Anastacia in appearance.

The Story:

Sophie arrived a little early but phoned ahead to warn me. She is a very friendly, outgoing person who you warm to straight away. We had coffee and a chat before some kissing and fondling ensued.I knew already this was going to be special. Sophie then suggested we retire upstairs to "get sexual".I won't go into bedroom details, suffice to say Sophie's other admirers who have posted FR's do not exaggerate. This lady is dynamite, we even managed to make the bed collapse at one point- no boasting, just old bed!. Sophie is an absolute delight and really throws herself 100% into the business in hand.Treat this lady right and she'll put a smile on your face that would take surgery to remove.I am already looking forward to our next meeting.
