The Premises:

I last visited this place soon after it first opened. Generally the interior is fairly nice and relatively clean, though some things are showing signs of age (broken showers etc). Its a first floor flat above shops, access is via a side road. It was quiet when i was there, though i imagine that during the week the access road would be busy and hence less discreet.

The Lady:

Mandy is an english blonde, maybe about 5'6. She is reasonably attractive with a relatively nice figure, though she is getting to the age where gravity is starting to take its toll. She is in her mid-30s i would have said.

The Story:

At this place the girls come in and introduce themselves and then the receptionist comes in to ask you which one you prefer and what service you would like. There were two girls the day i went, but the other was busy so i only saw Mandy. I paid for the VIP one hour service and Mandy returned. I first asked for a massage, which was okay if slightly wooden. After turning around and playing with her breasts for awhile i asked for a BJ which she refused to do saying that the hour was unlimited sex only. Anyway at this point i was getting rather hard and in no mood to argue, so i got her to lay next to me whilst we played with each other.

Into missionary position for some sex followed by some more fondling. Anyway, as the room had mirrors along one wall i wanted to try some doggy style. It was not so good, mainly as she seemed in a hurry and asked me if i had come before the end. With some girls i would have stayed and chatted, but she didn't seem much of a conversationalist so i showered and left beforetime. Mandy doesn't really like her work and this comes across, she didn't really try and make me feel especially welcome. This place used to be run by a nice Australian lady, but it appears that she has left and that the place has gone slightly down hill since then.
