The Story:

We had arranged an 'interview' with a strict boss. I arrived about 15 minutes early and texted mistress as I waited in my car. She texted back saying she would summon me when ready. About 20 minutes later she said 'come now'. I arrived and Mistress opened the door wearing a business suit with an extremely short skirt. She looked very stern with her hair tied back. She immediately asked me if I had come about the position of her personal body servant. I was sat down and asked a few personal questions. Then she immediately told me to strip naked. I stood before her trembling with excitement. We went upstairs and Mistress put on my collars and led me into the 'interview' room. I had to follow her closely and then I knelt before her and kissed her legs and feet.

The session went very quickly. I had a full anal examination and was caned several times. The highlight was when Mistress donned a large strap-on and fucked me first with her standing behind me and then with my legs across her shoulders. She was relentless and I nearly came as she pounded my G-spot. It was wonderful to just submit in that way. Finally Mistress sat on my and rubbed herself on my face and took my 'sample'.

All in all, absolutely brilliant. Much better than a normal 'vanilla' experience. This is the 2nd time I have visited Mistress and will certainly be going back for more!
