The Premises:

Fairly nice place with plenty of night time parking nearby. Several takeaways on the same strip make it fairly well lit up and busy. This parlour is above a takeaway so it is obvious to anyone inside where you are headed.

The Lady:

Mid to late 20's, ok physique long blonde hair, nothing bad to say about her but she just wasn't my type however i was short on time and decided to stay.

The Story:

Quite good massage to my back and reaching forward to play with my balls. Turned over for her to carry on making me hard. After a few minutes she put on the condom and gave me oral (teeth were getting in the way though). I was told on the phone that she does owo but she did not offer this to me. I finished off fucking her doggy style so i could make use of the full length mirror. My main problem with this parlour is that the massage rooms both join onto the lounge by a door way and the walls must be made of paper. Whilst you are in the room you can hear every sound in the lounge so i assume they can hear every sound you make too, this is a little off putting.

The girl and the service were ok but i don't think i will visit again there was no conversation and we did not seem to click.
