The Premises:

Situated near Lutterworth town centre off the main road. Car parking available but access through the archway is a little restricted for larger cars. Once through the archway though and parked up the entrance is hidden away from the main road. Reception staff were very friendly and accommodating. Looked clean and well run establishment. You do get to mingle with other punters in the changing rooms, but they all seem very normal and just say hello etc.

The Lady:

Courtney is an attractive blond lady with nice curly blond hair. Nice body and a friendly personality. Very talkative and keen to get to know you and your background etc.

The Story:

I did not initially book to see Courtney, but Michelle was busy for an hour appointment at the time. Went for an hour in the VIP room. Had an initial introduction and a very relaxing massage, but unfortunately this was about the only enjoyment I got from my visit. I was far too nervous having been out of the punting scene for a couple of years and Courtney was very keen to stimulate me to the point of pressuring me to perform. She only went topless and never offered to remove her knickers at anytime. She also said 'no kissing' and 'do not touch my nipples', which I found very off-putting.

If I had dropped a couple of dragon light and had a vodka beforehand then maybe it would have been a different story.

I think Courtney may be on a break now or moved on as she no longer appears on the VH website ??

I would definitely go back to VH to experience another WG, but me and Courtney never hit it off.
