The Premises:

Nice appartment, a couple of minutes walk from Earls Court tube station. Safe and anonymous.

The Lady:

Attractive girl - early 20's, slim, dark hair, 5ft4, pretty face, large tits - stats quoted as 34DD-24-34. Eastern European origin (Ukraine)

The Story:

It was a very hot day. I was offered a shower on arrival, which I gratefully accepted. We shared a bottle of wine which I had brought with me, and I attempted to make conversation. All my attempts at small-talk were unsuccessful, and so much of the wine was drunk in silence.

All of a sudden, Monika told me to "relax", sat astride me, and gave me the best BBBJ I've ever had, while I fondled her sexy body. I climaxed after about 5 mins, and things went downhill from there.

Monika then lay back on the bed, and it was pretty obvious she'd had enough. She was totally disinterested in me. I managed to get a few kisses from her, but I was feeling very uncomfortable.

I fondled her all over, gave her oral and masturbated her. She just lay there in silence, with her eyes closed.

Eventually, I asked her for sex. At the mention of the word, she fitted my condom, and insisted I went on top. Again she lay back, eyes closed, occasionally grimacing as I fucked her.

I felt so uncomfortable that I came as quickly as I could, took another shower, and left.

Just as I was leaving, I noticed that there had been another person in the appartment the whole time. Maybe that was why Monika had been so reluctant to engage with me.

All in all, a confusing appointment. Got off to a good start, but deteriorated rapidly.
