The Lady:

Gena is sex on (nice slim) legs. If you were brought up on skinny models and teenage girls, Gena is IT! She is pretty, I'd guess 5'4"-5'6", size 6-8, with short (dyed) blonde hair, unfeasibly narrow waist and slim hips, pert rounded breasts and a shaved pussy.

The Story:

Well, yes, some you win... I'd been planning for some time to see Gena. The pictures on her website are incredibly horny and explicit. I'd booked 2 days earlier, specifying 3pm as I had a meeting that didn't finish 'til 2. She sent me a text at 1:42 AM on the day telling me what she was going to do with me. When I phoned to confirm, she asked if I could make it earlier 'as she was feeling horny'. Mmmm..

I phoned about 2:25 to say I'd be there at 3. I arrived outside her house at 3pm, but had to wait while she dressed. When I finally arrived, she looked very horny in a short black dress. We dispensed with the money, and I waited while she answered a call from her mother.

We finally got down to business at about 3:15. She seem to love talking dirty, in her strong EE accent, which can be a turn on, but in this case wasn't really having the desired effect. (I had to ask her to turn the radio off - how can you have hot sex while in the background there are adverts for oven cleaners?) While she was sucking me (and her oral is very good), her phone kept buzzing. She suggested 69, to which I readily agreed, although her pussy was showing a good few days' bristly re-growth. While I was tongue-fucking her and exploring her mega-tight arse with my finger, she took a call on her mobile, and sounded very businesslike! Within a couple of minutes of putting down the phone, she was apparently having a strong orgasm. Or not.

Then on with the hat and into her very tight pussy, in cowgirl and then doggy. Then lubed up and went for anal doggy - her arse is the tightest I've fucked, and I'm becoming a bit of a connoisseur. However, despite this and the constant dirty talk, I found it hard to come. It all seemed so 'artificial', as if she was just going through the motions.

I finally did come - she got me to slap her bum, and I ended up fucking her arse harder than I normally would. She then confirmed what I'd suspected - she had someone else booked in for 4pm. She tried to get me off again with her mouth (as I said, her oral is good) but I couldn't do it. I left just before 4, with Gena suggesting I come back and we play some bondage games - and next minute answering a call from her next client.

A previous FR said that she was very much 'in control'. She is, and perhaps that doesn't work for me. Maybe it's just that the shyness and slight submissiveness of oriental girls is more my scene. However, I'd gone seeking a PSE, and feel that I got a bit of this, but not really focused on me. For me, all the ingredients were there, but the overall package didn't work. If there had been a mirror in the bedroom so I could watch myself fucking her skinny arse and getting a deep bj, it might have been better, but the feeling of being on a conveyor belt detracted seriously from the experience. 50% of any good punt happens inside your own head. For me, this didn't happen.

Gena - if you read this, please be honest next time & say if you have back-to-back appointments. I would have rearranged if I'd known. And also, put your contact details on your public web site.

Galahad - as a previous punter asked, I need something between Yes and No for recommendations. Everyone has off days, so maybe I'll try her again at her flat in Basingstoke, under different circumstances. Gena looks and acts (in the professional sense) very horny, but I'm afraid this time I didn't feel very much.
