The Premises:

Ground floor flat with controlled entry, but outer door open. Busy main road near Queens Park. Nice, but busy, area.

The Lady:

Tall, leggy, pretty (dyed) blonde in early forties. Nice figure, well-proportioned: small firm tits and sexy bottom, almost shaven in 'fun' area. Edinburgh accent. Pleasant and relaxed with good sense of humour. Puts you at your ease immediately with earth down to earth manner and ability to send herself up. Wearing a short negligee, g-string and black fish-net hold-ups with black stilettos.

The Story:

Started with gentle massage and chat. After she asked me to turnover, proceeded to 'menu' and prices, which were slightly different to that quoted when I phoned. I had been told that entry including massage was ?10 and then prices went up to ?50. I did say at that point 'So the most I'll pay is ?60?' and this was confirmed. However Kate told me that anal, which I'd decided to try for the first time, would cost ?80. I didn't protest as I having a good time anyway and didn't want to spoil the ambience.

kate then asked me if I'd like to massage her. I gave her a slow massage which she seemed to enjoy, making the right noises and comments. She also made the right noises when I suggested '69' wasting no time in positioning herself over my face while eagerly doing the business at the other end.

We then proceeded to the main course, starting with 'cowgirl', which didn't work too well, before continuing with 'doggy'. (I got her to close her legs when we were doing this, so I don't know if that's called something other than 'doggy'!) It was great, if over too soon. She was wagging her bum very provocatively and this didn't help my self control!

She genuinely offered me washing facilities in her small 'en-suite' bathroom, but I declined a shower as there was another guy waiting after me. I left feeling good, if mildly disappointed. Another thing the advert said was 'Kisses'. I did get a kiss when I left, but, hey, don't you always? I'd recommend Kate, but make sure you get the full facts before you commit yourself.
