The Premises:

Although the address is in the main road the entrance is round the back via a side road. You have to approach along the side of a car bodyshop yard, and you can bet the workers in the bodyshop know where you are going! Once inside all is very comfortable after some recent refurbishments. I was shown straight to the V.I.P. suite complete with corner bath / jacuzzi in one corner.

The Lady:

I called expecting to see the gorgeous Pinda, but alas she has left! If anyone has seen her elsewhere please post an FR on her new location. Instead I saw another Indian girl from Goa. Slightly larger than Pinda but still nicely curvy and voluptuous. Very nicely presented, fresh and clean with a very ample pair of Bristols. I later realised that her breasts had been enhanced, but it was a very good job, the feel being very natural, the main giveaway being the slight scars from her nipples down to the base. Her English is also rather limited.

The Story:

A good session with a nice friendly and willing girl. Her massage was good, paying attention to all the right places and her oral was OK too, with added eye contact. We then had sex in several positions culminating in doggie.

All in all a good session, but not quite up to Pinda standards!
