The Premises:

The Head Office has to be the best, and least parlour like, place in Stoke.

The Lady:

Any Honey has to be the most beautiful girl in any parlour in Stoke. Honey is one of those rare creatures that is pure classic beauty, yet remains shy and demure enough to either not know it or certainly no to take advantage of it. With a figure to die for and legs that go on for ever, Honey is the sort of girl that any man could only ever dream of having on his arm.

The Story:

After a shower, Honey entered the room and straight away came over and gave me a kiss and cuddle. Then on to a really nice, relaxing back rub. 'Do you want me to lie on my back now?' she asked with a wicked smile, knowing full well that I could stay with my face buried between her legs for the rest of the day - and boy does she taste good. Lots of kissing and eye contact, with Honey running her fingers through my hair and holding my head in place as I went down on her made it a tremendous experience, which she then returned - but I am sad to say I was far too enamoured of Honey to do her justice. But I will be back....
