The Story:

Should have read previous reports. Originally planned to go to the Executive Suite but the place was full so wandered over here and took a chance. Two girls working and Paris looked the tidiest. Showered and waited about 5 minutes before Paris came in. She said she was doing this because she has just had a baby. Ok, no problem, but I felt everything was just a bit mechanical without any real enthusiasm. Now she is a nice kid but she did not do it for me. O was with a coat on only and it just was not happening. She eventually got on top as I was desperately trying to think of someone so as to end the charade.

If you like quiet pretty girls from Stoke, she your girl. Sorry but I will be looking for the mature ladies next time who can at least make out they are there for the paying punter.
