The Premises:

Very nice basement flat in quiet side road. The bedroom is full of uniforms, clothes and various apparatus for many different fetishes.

The Lady:

Jenny is slim, has long flowing blonde hair. I would guess she is in her early twenties. She was wearing a short leather skirt, thigh length boots, black stockings and a leather bra.

The Story:

It was my first visit to a mistress and it was because I was curious to see if I was into the dom scene. After talking with Jenny, we decided to go for some body worship and some playful spanking. We started off with the body worship and I had to make sure that I served her needs well enough. As she felt that I had not, she put me across her knee and started to spank me which I found turned me on. We then had sex in a couple of positions and then Jenny finished me off by hand. I found that I enjoyed the experience and will probably return. Although I saw Jenny on a Thursday, her normal day is Monday.
