The Story:

I'd met Paris before for short appointments and was tempted by her offer of a longer appointment at the weekend. She's very friendly, chatty and totally professional so you're in good hands (in more ways than one!).

We'd arranged a VIP hot tub session but there was plenty of time both before and after to have fun, for which I asked Paris to wear a couple of her range of sexy outfits. This meant that no time was wasted, despite the length of the appointment, and it was a great session.

Paris started out with black lingerie, tits hanging out, gently playing with herself on the bed, then giving me a toy show to get me going. When she'd finished I went down on her, giving her clit and cunt a good licking, then moved up to those sensational breasts. She sat up and we started French kissing, then she slowly started removing my shirt and trousers, gently nibbling me as she went. I then asked her if she could perform oral while filming with her webcam, which she was happy to do. Several clips were taken with her gently sucking my swollen cock, finishing with her wanking me off while talking dirty, at which point I could take no more and came all over her face.

After cleaning off Paris turned on the hot tub and we got in for about half an hour or so. Despite it being outside, it's covered and the layout means that it isn't overlooked, so I didn't feel uncomfortable at all. We just sat together and either talked about various things or spent time getting gently intimate with lots of kissing and fondling (no sex in the hot tub!) which meant that, despite spending lots of time in hot water, I wasn't suffering from "shrinkage" at all - in fact quite the opposite! I felt nicely relaxed and ready to go again.

Once we'd dried off, I put my boxer's back on and Paris changed into a schoolgirl outfit, white blouse and chequered skirt, and got back onto the bed. She then did another toy show, this time not looking at me so that it felt like I was spying on her. Again I gave her some oral and also gently inserted two fingers into her moist cunt and played around a bit. Then we moved onto (protected) sex, again using the webcam (note - some positions definitely work better on camera, possibly worth a bit of thought beforehand). First I lifted up her skirt and took her from behind doggy style, with lots of slapping of my thighs against her arse. Then I lay down with the laptop/webcam between my legs and she did cowgirl and reverse cowgirl on me - the clips looked excellent afterwards. Then, with me in the same position, she did some OWO while facing the camera, also rubbing my cock against her breasts. Then she hitched up her skirt, put her legs across my body and thrust her gorgeous pussy into my face. I hadn't actually expected that, but I really enjoy 69s so I licked her as hard as I could and slapped her arse while she sucked me off, eventually making me cum hard again. Wonderful!

By now we'd pretty much used up the two hours, but Paris wasn't in a rush to get rid of me and took time to make sure I had a couple of CDs before I left, one pre-prepared with a mixture of photos and a couple of video clips and the other with the stuff we'd recorded that day.

What can I say - right up there with the best of all the sexual experiences I've ever had. Paris is all woman and really gives clients what they want to the best of her ability. Plus her prices are so reasonable!
