The Story:

I read the reviews in the website and decided Daniela was for me. Unfortunately, although she was very personable, we did not quite "hit it off" I spent a good while with my tongue in her pussy. She did not seem to be enjoying this. When I came up for air, she asked me to carry on, but announced that there were only 25 minutes left. I suggested that she might like to take care of my needs first and then we could resume. To be honest, as she had seemed so disinterested, or maybe that was just my perception of it, I thought that if I carried on, she might eke out the time then send me on my way with no relief for me.

Anyway, Daniela began by unwrapping a condom. I asked her for OWO, which she did. I'm quite sensitive when my foreskin is pulled back. Her OWO was fairly robust and quite painful for me. she then put the condom on, mounted me and rode me cowgirl style until I came. She gave me wetwipes and tissue to clean off with and went to the bathroom. When she came back, she was dressed and it would seem the session was over. I too got dressed and left without fuss, although there was still some time left.

As I say, I did not feel we "clicked", but she certainly has a lovely body.

I will not be visiting again, but maybe others will have a better experience.
