The Premises:

This place is clean and seems safe, and run by efficient Russian speaking staff. It aims for a club atmosphere and is similar to the 'men's salons' in Moscow. There is bar with some Russian men wrapped in towels drinking and chatting, and about 14 ladies sitting around but all looking rather glum and unsmiling like Soviet leaders.

The Lady:

Nice looking slim young girl with dark hair. Speaks good English.

The Story:

Not a pleasant experience. I paid 25 entrance fee to the place and 90 for half an hour with the girl. We went to a room and she then said it would be another 30 quid for full sex which I questioned but in the end paid. Then she spent some time trying to persuade me to take a second girl as well and I had to strongly insist that I did not want this.

She was cold and mechanical and tried to get it done as soon as she could which was about 15 minutes despite me asking her to slow down. She would stay and immediately ran back to her glum friends.
