The Premises:

On busy main road, but has car park round the back with rear entrance. Can be a bit busy. Friendly receptionist, shame she doesn't join in (when u see her you'll know what i mean). Has 4 rooms and normally 3-4 girls on at a time.

The Lady:

WOW. Karen is approx. 30-40, 5'9, i think she's got 38dd-23-34 figure, roughly. Her boobs are enhanced but u have got to see them to believe them. Has blonde hair. She is absolutely beautiful and knows exactly what to do in the room. Maybe that's why she has 3 successful places

The Story:

Have seen Karen quite a few times, never regretted it once. Shown to the room by receptionist, i keep wanting to ask her if she would join in but never got the guts. Had a shower in which the receptionist came in with some towels, wanted to grab her and get her to suck my cock. Finished shower and waited for Karen as she was with a client at the time. She arrived in the room wearing a white bra and thong set. Started kissing her, french kissing, which i love, one reason i like seeing Karen. Started feeling her arse whilst she played with my cock. Then i got her to go down on me whilst i was stood up and suck my cock (w/o) and balls.

This lasted a few minutes until she told me to lie on the bed. I lied on my stomach as she released those huge tits and started to massage me with them. Licked all over my back and in my ear, then started going down to my ass where she started to do some rimming (which i love her doing) and stroked my now getting hard cock. This lasted for a few minutes until she told me to turn over. Started french kissing again and sucked those tits until she took my cock (w/o) and sucked it for all she was worth. Then she got me to move down the bed and got into a 69 position. She has a great pussy and i love licking her clit. She kept jerking and moaning as i was doing this and i thought i was going to explode while she was blowing me.

She then wanted to fuck me, who was i to dissappoint, she teased my cock on her clit for a minute, then put the condom on and slid it straight up that pussy of hers. She was moaning all the time until she wanted to change positions with me on top. We moved around and i entered her again, fucking her for all i was worth. I then told her i wanted to fuck those tits and cum in her mouth which is what i always do, and she knew that's what i wanted to do, going off past visits. Off with the condom and jumped in between those tits and fucked them so hard whilst she licked the end of my knob whilst i was fucking them. Told her i was about to cum, so she opened wideand i wanked into that horny mouth.

She doesn't swallow but that's not a problem. She is as horny as hell. If u want to fuck an experienced and very horny lady, go see Karen, trust me you'll luv it.
