The Premises:

Typical working flat above a row of shops on a main road. Access via a rear alley way. Plenty of parking. Clean and tidy inside. Entrance has a security gate at the top of a flight of stairs.

The Lady:

Amanda is a very attractive, tall, slim brunette. Decided to see her from the pics on the web site. Partially shaven and a well toned body.

The Story:

Yet another example of being deceived by the looks and empty promises. Amanda look very sexy in her lacy outfit but when introduced didn't come close or make much of an effort. I still chose her as I had seen the other girl before and had high hopes.

I should have gone by my instincts and walked away. Although very attractive and pleasant Amanda stank of alcohol. She really wasn't with it and clearly didn't want to be there. She did do a reasonable massage and held a conversation, although seemed a little bored one minute and then excitable the next.

Sex was just an average shag which Amanda simply didn't take part in. Needless to say I didn't reach a climax.

The final nail in the coffin of this visit was to find the "security" guard standing outside the bedroom door waiting for me when I left. Totally off putting. I will never go back to this place.
