The Premises:

Brooklyns is well established and no more to be said except they are apparently making plans to expand and re-furbish in the near future. I do have a problem with the receptionist though and this is the reason why this report will receive a negative from me.

The Lady:

Nikki is a lovely mature lady, now in her early 40's but still as fit as hell and, in my opinion, one of the best working girls in Crewe. Have seen her several times and she never disappoints.

The Story:

Personality and attitude are all important to me and this lady has both in abundance. The problem for me with this place is the receptionist called Donna. She probably thinks she is being very efficient but for me she is a pain the arse. If you book in for 30 mins you can bet your life you will get a knock on the door after 29 mins - just when the girl is doing the business for you! Ignore this at your peril! One minute later you will get a more serious banging on the door followed by a verbal and basically it's all over - whether you have achieved satisfaction or not. This is the second time I have visited this establishment and gone away dissatisfied having parted with ?50 of my hard earned. For me it's a waste of money and not to be recommended - no matter how good the girls are. Let's face it - we are talking about a "personal service" which may take a couple of minutes more (bit like a dentist, hairdresser etc)? It should be left to the girls discretion with a little leeway for a minute or two? Anyway I shall not be returning I'm afraid and I have to say negative on both counts - but only because of the attitude of the management - nothing to do with Nikki who is great. Pity you don't work somewhere else darling. xxx
