The Story:

My frind told me about this Thai Therapist place so i went there after i finished work. Because i always have problems with my back, its hurting me after a while. so i give it a try with this Thai Therapist.When the masseur started to massage my back i could feel that she touched the sport where i was hurting. i felt so good and so realaxig. I could feel straght away that the therapist does work and help because after that my back is better. I am definietly go back again for the therapist.
