The Story:

I have seen Julia on several occasions at Kandys. But this is the first time I have visited her in her new address, and she seems more relaxed outside the parlour enviroment. She always seems to try hard to put her clients at ease and to find out what they need to get the most out of the experiance. I was offered a drink on arrival, and after taking care of the financial side was left in the bedroom for a few momments while Julia changed. The room was small but very inviting, clean and sweet smelling (rather like Julia). When she returned she was dress in sexy lingerie and fishnet holdups. A little light spanking of that perfect bottom led to mutual fondeling which soon had the desired effect. Julia then applied a condom and proceeded with a slow sensual BJ with plenty of eye contact. All the time being careful not to take things to quickly & stopping when things became too much! We then had her in various positions. I must admit that the sight of her bottom in doggie was almost too much, but i managed to last a little longer. She then helped me clean up and made me a cup of tea!

At no time did I feel time was an issue & I felt she genuinely wanted me to have the best possible time, and I appreciated being treated like an individual & not purely another client.

All in all the perfect session, with a very intellegent & sensual lady. Julia is much more than your average parlour employee, more of a modern day courtesan and deserves to be treated with respect. I hope to visit her again soon.
