The Premises:

4th floor of small block of flats. (No lift) Flat was rather messy with clothes and make up strewn about in bedroom and particularly in bathroom. Only cold water was available in bathroom at the time of my visit.

The Lady:

Pretty blonde girl largely as depicted in photos on website, except not as busty. She didn't look like an E-cup, as advertised - more like a D-cup. Maybe she had lost weight since the photos were taken.

The Story:

I had asked (male) receptionist at agency about Kelly's services and was told she does all services including massage. I particularly asked about rimming, which is a favourite of mine, and was told no problem. After my trek up the stairs I was shown into a bedroom near the entrance and handed over the cash, whereupon Kelly disappeared for a few minutes (as per usual W-G practice). When she returned, we commenced proceedings and I was disappointed to discover she wouldn't do F-K, OWO was OK and she agreed (apparently reluctantly) to 69. CIM was also not on the menu and, needless to say, rimming was out of the question. Although, it was clear that Kelly is not too into her work, I put the problem more down to the agency than to the girl, herself. An agency shouldn't say that a girl provides services which she doesn't. Even if this means a loss of the immediate sale, if the punter feels he can trust the agency, he might call back on another occasion. As it is, i don't think I will be using this agency again, any time soon.
