The Premises:

Small flat in a well known block. Safe and easy access. I have visited several independent ladies over the last few months after my success with Sophie and I have to say I have been very disappointed. I'm not going to write bad reviews because it wasn't that bad so if you are new be aware a lady without any comments probably doesn't deliver. So it's back to 00-44 who seem to pick winners more often than duds. I'm sure that's down to the way the ladies are treated. I'm always comfortable with these guys.

The Lady:

Gemma is a young Australian girl with a very petite figure and schoolgirl looks. Laura is a "the body" girl with long legs, lovely boobs and a sweet face.

The Story:

This was a good date by any standard but probably not worth a review with the exception of one incredible thing. We had a really great time kissing and fumbling together and playing with each others private bits. Like most duo dates I have enagaged in, I go into a whir of boobs and pussy that seems to have no end so its difficult to pick out moments. This one was a bit different. After various changes of position I landed up with Gemma beside me and Laura riding cowgirl on top. I was kissing Gemma and playing with her little titties when we were both suddenly aware of Laura making a unforgettable noise. We both looked up and there she was riding my cock like a symbian with the most increbile I'm going to come expression on her face. An come she did practically breaking my pelvis in the heat of the moment. I could see Gemma was really turned on too it was so sexually exciting to watch. Amazingone of teh best natural GFE sessions to date and I've had more than my fair share :)
