The Premises:

Julia used to work in a local Parlour, and then for a short while from a flat in Madeley. She now has a good sized working flat which is very easy to find, in a quiet side street in the St Georges area of Telford. The apartments have their own car-park and you can park your car opposite Julia's front door, so no problems with twitching curtains from the neighbours. Take care not to hit your head though, as the bedroom is in the eaves and some of the upstairs ceilings slope down steeply.

The Lady:

Julia is a definitely a bit special, and one of the prettiest escorts I have ever met. She is very proud of her new photos and plans to upload new images regularly. Though in my opinion none of the images do her justice, as she is much prettier in person. Think of a pocket Julia Bradbury, a good body and a good brain to go with it. Over time there have been several Julia "looks". In her current incarnation, her pale blue eyes peering from under her fringe would turn any man to putty in her hands. I had been trying to fit a visit to Julia into my work pattern for some time. When my opportunity came I booked my appointment the day before. Julia's directions were very clear and a Postcode was offered if I wanted to use a Satnav. Over the phone she has a strong powerful voice. On arrival you realise it comes from a delightfully petite but very determined frame. I was offered refreshment and Julia insisted on a little "get to know you" chat (before my hour began.) I am pretty hopeless at these things but would guess Julia is in her late twenties or early thirties, though looking at her body you would say she was 18. She has clearly taken good care of herself and is a beautifully proportioned size 6/8.

The Story:

Julia's personality is so engaging my nervousness at meeting her for the first time disappeared immediately, I was relaxing, chatting with an old friend (very old in my case.) All Services are provided covered, and she doesn't offer A-levels (doesn't enjoy it.) Hygiene and cleanliness are very important to her in order to keep both herself and her Clients healthy. She has a range of toys for use on her and on clients if desired. I certainly behaved myself after she had explained that she has previously worked as a Dominatrix and likes to get keep all her cane strokes nicely positioned and evenly spaced! She has such an open minded personality I doubt that you can shock her, she has probably here it all before, so just be open and say what you really want. She takes her profession seriously and wants her Clients to enjoy their time with her. As I requested Julia wore her "naughty schoolgirl" outfit. It was when I lifted the back of her short skirt as I put her over my knee, and half-pulled down her little red knickers for a light spanking, that I discovered that Julia has the best bum in the business, worth her fee alone! Other highlights of my visit were some of the best oral I have ever received with lots of eye-contact, her lingering kisses, and running my tongue between those perfect little bum-cheeks. Our time together flew by, she uses her phone as an alarm clock as she gets carried away chatting. We had a nice hug and a kiss goodbye before I left. Julia is a real find, a true professional. I will be back soon for round 2, I just have to see that perfect little bum again.
