The Premises:

A well known establishment on Union Street. Easy and safe parking in the Aldi car park opposite but free parking limited to 90mins. The place has had a major refurb since I was last there, is much better for it and now exudes an air of peace, relaxation and near luxury. Shower etc offered. I suspect also a change of management as the rather formidable and 'pushy' madame was not in evidence.

The Lady:

Three ladies offered. All dressed in short 'massage uniforms'. A pity they made no effort to introduce themselves other than by appearance. Chose Helena on the basis that 'red-heads are raunchy' and the fact that she has a lovely smile. Had I known her name at the time of choosing it would have been a definite anyway as St Helena is the patron saint of difficult marriages and divorced people - what could be more appropriate! I am bad at gauging age and the other vitals but I suspect mid-20's, 5'5", everything in very good proportion and, as later inspection proved - all her own.

The Story:

A good back massage with talc to take away the stresses of the day. The massage gradually became really sensuous as Helena's touch became lighter and explored my sensitive parts whilst caressing my back with her gorgeous boobs. When asked to turn over it was obvious that her touch was working!

More gently stroking, some boob caressing and sucking before I was so bold as to suggest some RO. Offer accepted and as the time passed it seemed to be appreciated as she joined in playing with herself at the same time. Then came 'welly time', expertly put on by mouth by Helena, to be followed by minimal oral, at my request because I know that too much would send me over the top too soon. Excellent cow-girl to completion and an unhurried clean-up.

Helena is a conversationalist rather than a 'talker for the sake of talking' but also knows when silence is golden. She is sensitive to a guy's desires and weaknesses and a very welcome addition to the Plymouth scene. She gave me a real GFE which will not be forgotten in a hurry.

Thank you, Helena, my patron saint

Would I go back? For Helena certainly 'yes' and for the refurb Gentlemens Club also 'yes'. If this is Plymouth Regeneration, long may it continue!
