The Premises:

We met in a discrete detached house in a quiet area, with safe parking for several cars. It was very clean and comfortable inside and the bedroom had ensuite shower facilities. All very clean with clean towels etc

The Lady:

Isabella is petite lady in her late twenties I should think, size 10/12 with long black hair, and is exactly like her website shows her. Debbie who is her step mother, is probably mid 40s, size 18 with large breasts 38F according to her website which unfortunately I cannot mention here through lack of space. I booked both ladies on this occasion as I was looking for some cross dressing fun in a relaxed and sensuous way and they offer a lesbian role play together which I felt really comfortable with.

The Story:

I had arranged to meet Isabella and her step-mother Debbie for a 'girlie' threesome. The delectable Debbie was there to meet me at the door and welcomed me with a luscious kiss and lovely big hug. It was such a pleasure to see her warm smiling face again. I had first met her for an 'overnighter' a couple of months previously but this meeting, which alas could only be for 2 hours, was, she had promised, to be doubly pleasurable as she had invited her step-daughter Isabella to join us both.

However on first arrival I needed to change into a prettier skirt, fix my hair and do my make-up so we went immediately upstairs to Debbie's room where there is a nice mirror and Debbie pampered me with exotic make-up and lent me a lovely high-gloss lipstick which later left a rosy kiss-mark on her coffee mug! After a dab of perfume at ears, neck, cleavage, and inner thighs, ready for the pleasures to come, we went downstairs again to meet the equally delectable Isabella. She was sitting on the sofa wearing her nurse's uniform and the skirt had risen up sufficiently to reveal really pretty legs and there was a lovely hint of cleavage at her breast. Even at first glance, we seemed to sense immediately, that like her mother, she could fulfil mutual lesbian desires in each of us and I immediately sensed a pulse of my love juices dampening the front of my panties. At first her hair was up but she soon shook this free and let it down ? in more ways than one!

We all sat together on the sofa enjoying our mugs of coffee and then this turned to gentle kissing and caressing. Debbie had not forgotten my love to have my breasts fondled and it was electric to feel their silky fingers slowly unbuttoning my blouse and teasing my pert nipples through the thin nylon of my bra, and later exploring my thighs above my 'hold-ups' searching for that V of my panties by now damp with desire.

We soon all moved upstairs to Debbie's room and slowly, between kisses and caresses, erotically removed each other's clothes. Isabella had suggested that we should all try to 'come' at the same time and, at first, this seemed a good idea but gradually our individual passions overcame us and Debbie's 'rampant rabbit' was soon humming away to such an extent that the sight and feel of it gliding between her thighs and to sense its pulsing deep within her, especially when the penetration allowed the little bunny to massage her clit, was too much for her and she came in great spasms of pleasure which indeed thrilled us all. By now Isabella was really wet too and although I offered to massage her too she, like most of us girls know the best way to climax, preferred to massage herself until she too came with little moans of pleasure. Needing to taste and swallow her cum I asked to sit astride me and was then able to tongue and suck her from her clit to the rosebud of her lovely bumhole and her cum tasted so fresh and stimulating. Meanwhile she was leaning back and massaging my breasts with baby oil so that the pleasure was intense and I knew that I would come soon, especially as by now, Debbie was tonguing and sucking me and massaging me with teasing fingers one of which was probing my own rosebud. I longed for this to penetrate my own little bumhole and squirmed downwards in the hope that it would do so but Debbie is skilful enough to know that delayed penetration would enhance my own eventual pleasures. Isabella is apparently really turned on by the sight of pulsing cum and soon, at a little cry from Debbie who could feel from my pelvic thrusts that I was about to explode, Isabella turned round and could watch this herself. She did indeed seem excited by this and my gentle finger-tip massaging of her labian lips and tiny thumb pressure at her clit I was able to help her come a second time which surprised and thrilled us all. After this mutual expenditure of our lesbian passions we lay in a troika of caressing oiled arms and legs kissing until we fell drowsy with our post-coital love, the scent of our perfumes mingling with the sensual aroma of the cum on our still damp bellies and thighs.
