The Premises:

The location was a clean, tidy flat a few minutes walk from London Bridge station. The area was busy at the time I visited and I felt safe walking around.

The Lady:

Karen is a mature woman, probably mid-40's, attractive, with short blonde hair, a curvaceous body and with a couple of tattoos.

The Story:

I agreed to meet Karen for dinner before our session, and was glad I did. On meeting, she immediately put me at ease, with her friendly conversation. Over dinner, we had a really interesting chat. She is clearly an extremely experienced lady, and has some amazing stories of life as a dominatrix, amongst others. Really, by the time dinner was over I felt as if I had known her for ages, she was such good company.

We walked back to her flat and had a coffee before retiring to the bedroom. I had mentioned that I particularly liked anal, and she promised that she did too. Probably like a lot of punters, I have had plenty of experience of girls who offer this service, but are not really into it, however, Karen was clearly into it in a big way, offering me her arse immediately following an excellent uncovered oral session. A long and satisfying deep anal followed, before I swapped condoms and fucked her conventionally. Finally, I finished on her face, much to her satisfaction.

In conclusion, I would recommend this lady to anyone who values a sincere, friendly woman who offers a good unhurried service. She's not a young model type, but she more than makes up for this in experience, and the excellent service she offers.
