The Premises:

Have visited this place before. Is now much improved. The answerphone works and the front door is locked, not wide open to the public as before. The flat has a new door. Area is safe, and although on a busy road is fairly anonymous.

The Lady:

She is (IMHO)absolutely gorgeous. She is about 5'8", I would guess about 36" C and verging on the voluptuous although there is no fat on her. Beautiful smooth skin and luscious thighs. Pretty face.

The Story:

I went on the spur of the moment as I was in the area and I had wanted to see Afreen(featured on the other place) for some time.

Told me that OWO would be another ?20. I said I wasn't bothered. Started by giving me a massage which was firm. I turned over before she finished as I wanted to get on with the main event (or so I thought).

I have not punted for six months, and I may not do it again. Without Viagra percy got stage fright and wouldn't play ball. Afreen tried hard, allowed reverse oral and oral on me. In the end I got a bit of an erection by me wanking while she opened her legs and let me massage her . I pushed into her lovely pussy and came with great relief.

The only offputting thing was that she was moaning most of the time, and I never know with girls like this whether what I'm doing is turning them on or not.

The lack of erection was entirely my fault - down to guilt and not being in the moment. I might try a massage service but if that doesn't work I might give up this game and become a respectable married man - better late than never!
