The Lady:

Small good figure, dark hair, shorter than the adverb used 5'6"

The Story:

A scam. knocked on the door, came in, dumped coat on bed (and I think its a really neat looking coat), and asked for money up front so she could pay taxi.....and yes I gave it to her.

And she went out of the room as if the driver was just a few feet away. And obviously that is the last I saw of her!

I found her on the other site advertising as Hot.Angi.
