The Premises:

If you know Milton Keynes and Bletchley then the Old Coach House that hosts Ego Massage is easy to find and parking is easy, at least on a Bank Holiday. The inside is very clean and professional and I would say at least the same quality of any high street beauty parlour frequented so much by the opposite sex these days.

The Lady:

I chose Penny based firstly on her website photos and then confirmed my choice based on reading the reports on this site. She was much more WOW! than I expected, being very slim (probably a little more than the photos suggest), around 5' 4", early 20's in age, natural soft breasts, and basically lovely to look at with a great smile that makes you feel very welcome.

The Story:

This was my first visit to Ego Massage and based on Penny's recommendation I took the Body to Body option on top of the standard massage, costing an extra ?10. I was not disappointed and Penny stripped at the beginning of the session at the same time as me.

Penny is a qualified massuere and also works other days in a standard beauty parlour. I had partly chosen a massage, my first instead of standard punting as I had suffered backache recently and man did Penny help. The first half of the session was a real relaxing professional massage that really made me feel much better.

Now the second half was something else when Penny asked me to turn over and then climbed on top to build up towards the Happy Ending. I will not go into details so as not to spoil it for others but all I can say is that Penny's relief method much more than just a hand job which is what I expected.

Quite honestly I did not think that relief without sex could ever feel this good, and I could even be persauded to give up punting, spending all my money on Penny. It also helps being allowed to gently touch Penny and her soft skin, even kissing her nipples although she does not kiss mouth.

Now I am looking to Nina, and the great feedback for her. Mmm so tempting!
