The Premises:

Out-call at the delightful Hoxton Hotel, trysting spot for City-types who need a short break from their dealing screens and for dissolute but cost-conscious aging punters. Safe, easy to find, five minutes walk from the Old Street tube station and with P&D on-street parking when approached from the rear if you are driving (the 'how to reach us' instructions on their website are excellent).

The Lady:

If ever there were a misnomer, it is that of 'Barbie' for a Nubian princess who stands 6'1" in her bare feet. The terms 'statuesque' and 'svelte' rarely appear in the same sentence, but she is both. She also is better looking than Naomi Campbell. Other than that, she don't look half bad. All 'Barbie' needs is a change of working name and she would be perfect!

The Story:

Although it is difficult for me to imagine having a very tall ebony beauty for a 'girlfriend' at this stage in my life, 'Barbie' offered me a delightful GFE this afternoon. Nothing too strenuous or extreme, merely some lovely kissing & cuddling, OWO and RO, mutual massage and a visual feast. Just watching her getting dressed afterward and applying her make-up (which she hardly needed) was worth the price of admission. She is very natural, in every sense of that word.

I am sometimes given to hyperbole when writing a FR immediately after a punt but G's in-tray was empty and I'm sure that the smile remain on my face for quite a while anyway.
