The Premises:

A nice flat in a block on a major road. Parking was not wonderful but managed to find a space close by. Flat was a devil to find as the building has three entrances and you have to find the right one. Once inside, clean and modern.

The Lady:

The photos on the website are strange in that nothing is really shown. This is because Amaya is a little plump with small, sagging breasts. Same smile but the large eyes aren't so large (and therefore cute) in real life. Otherwise, just your standard Thai girl.

The Story:

Very odd one this. Whilst I didn't have a bad time, it just didn't really seem right to me. Firstly, the girl is not as cute in real life which was a bit offputting. She says that she has been over here for two months and will stay for a year (standard really) but her accent was strange - for a while I was convinced she was a Brit-born girl who was putting it on.

Performance wise, everything was sound but not spectacular. Massage, bath (which she only got into at the end), owo, sex, relax and round two were all performed ok but not really with any conviction.

I went on the strength of a previous FR and was a little disappointed. Maybe it was just me, but I don't think that we have another new star girl here. Which is a pity.
