The Premises:

Ground floor flat near Regents Park, Marylebone. Reasonable size room which was clean and tidy. Felt safe in the area.

The Lady:

Leila is petite girl, slim built with lovely personality. Pictures on website show very little resemblance of her however I was pleased with my choice. She has small breasts just how I like them with prominent nipples just nice for sucking.

The Story:

Going by the good feedback that Leila has had I finally got round to seeing her. Spoke to the guy at the agency and he managed to fix a booking even though she was moving to a new location the same day. I made a booking the day before and full address was sent to me by text which was much appreciated. Arrived on time and had a warm and friendly welcome into her flat which is also shared by another girl. She offered me a drink and after sorting out the paperwork we both got undressed and showered together. She is about 5'5" and slightly older than stated on the website, possibly around 25 with a friendly personality. After having a shower we moved to the bedroom and she applied baby oil on my cock and balls and on her body as well and started on her deep throat speciality. This was expertly done and I was pleasantly surprised that she was able to take the entire length of my cock down her throat. After a while this was getting a bit too much and I had to stop her to avoid coming too soon and asked for some rimming. Here too she is an expert in the art and performed it very well. Next it was my turn to return the favour. She has prominent pussy lips and fully shaven but not to as smooth a finish as I would have liked. Her pussy tasted great and she was getting wet as I licked her clit and sucked on her lovely pussy lips, followed this up on her rosebud and back to her pussy again. It was now time for penetration so I decided to try the anal service commended on by other punters. Before doing so I asked if I was too big and she said no; she put a cover on my now rigid member, lubricated her rear passage and I entered slowly. Once my cock was fully inside it felt like it was being gripped in a vice and I carried on pumping until I unloaded inside her. She thanked me for entering her slowly saying that some guys were a bit rough. After a clean up she gave me a back massage and we kissed and cuddled each other in bed for a short while before she gave me more oral to try and revive my now limp member with limited success before having to give up. As time was nearly up we had a shower together and I got dressed, said our goodbyes and I left with a smile on my face. Leila is lovely girl who provides all services happily and she is willing to try anything, just be nice to her. Thank you Leila and see you again soon.
