The Premises:

Literally about a few moments walk away from Uxbridge tube station in a discreet and safe well-known hotel. Although her location can vary depending on the day and other circumstances.

The Lady:

Sophie is an attractive Hungarian, early 20something with shoulder-length dark blonde/light brown sort of hair (although of the bottle variety). She has a pretty face with nice lips, cute smile, and hazel coloured eyes.

About 5'7" and roughly a dress size 10. She has a lovely pear shaped figure; natural breasts with nice nipples, curvy hips and thighs, and a great shapely arse.

Also, she still has a charming hint of her Hungarian accent, but speaks perfect English.

The Story:

Abit of a nightmare for me to reach her from my own location, but all seemed worth it when I arrived and actually saw her.

Greeted by Sophie who had dressed in the manner I requested earlier, much appreciated, and reaching her room I was offered tea or coffee which I politely declined.

Started as per usual with some nice french kissing with us soon finding our way onto her bed for some more kissing as well as caressing with me seeking out and exploring her lovely curves. Eventually suggested a BJ as rest assured I was already getting scraped to death by my own zipper by now, with that she went for "kit" including some wet-wipes and lube.

She wiped me for abit before proceeding with a nice, sloppy oral (uncovered) using her own saliva to further aid lubricant in addition to some clever handiwork. Had to laid back to fully appreciate her oral technique while being mindful not to cum during as she doesn't provide CIM, but is open to Facials.

Positioning herself at the end of the bed Sophie soon received a lovely Facial over her pretty lil' face of course careful to avoid her eyes, which she appreciated.

After a small break and Sophie cleaning herself up went onto the second round and we tried some sexual positions, started with cowgirl with her bouncing and grinding on top for awhile, decided on a welcomed change and asked what her favourite position was and she replied "doggy-style". She positioned herself with her round arse up and took her from behind for abit, heard some noises coming from her enquired if anything was wrong and she responsed something like "yeah, I'm enjoying it" and actually might of. Another change with her on her back with legs spread eagle and us face-to-face, and seemed to genuinely enjoy herself.

In typical fashion opted to finish with hand-job provided yet again using saliva as lube and even spat on my cock, very very horny sight to behold. Eventually climaxed while sharing a lovely kiss with Sophie who actually continued milking me up until the last drop.

At the end of our session was graciously offered tea or coffee for refreshment again which as usual I declined, also offered a nice, warm shower which I did accept before leaving after a kiss goodbye.

In short I would definately recommend Sophie as she is attractive, charming, and a real gem at good value for money.
