The Premises:

Very professional establishment.

A bit of a rabbit warren, was shown through the girls waiting room, down a spiral staircase into a purpose built room, complete with massage table, shower, Jacuzzi bath and a double bed.

My only fault with the place was it could have been warmer.

The Lady:

I would guess she is of British Indian descent. Petite girl without silicone. Quite a stunner, but also shy and quiet.

The Story:

I went to the establishment in passing with a view of partaking a nuru massage, but was told on arrival that it was unavailable as the room was in use.

Started with a shower and then began a very relaxing massage. This was followed with a shared Jacuzzi bath, all of which although both were relaxing and enjoyable it did eat into the time.

After drying off we adjourned to the bed where she was very playful.

I have a feeling that Jasmine is quite new to the business probably spent longer on the massage table and in the Jacuzzi than most punters would expect. However, when she has a little more on the job experience she will get better.
