The Story:

annabella has a nice personality with a sexy warm smile. She seems very straight forward and does not fake anything. To sum her up i would say what you see is what you get. ALL services were available however did not take her up on the 30.00 extra service...

I have seen her 4 times now and although the other occasions were just straight down to business sessions this one was more chatty. Indeed it seems I get to know more about Annabella the more I see her. However dont be fooled if you want a wham bang thank you mam then she sure knows how to do this...

I decided to have reverse oral, owo and sex. This session seemed to be more of two friends becoming fuck buddies. This meant that my initial attempts were soft and I needed time to get hard.

However this session felt better than any other session i have had with her as it seemed more natural.

As highlighted in previous reports it seems hungarian girls are not really into reverse oral or was it my technique?

I must express my concerns about this site as it seems to block legitimate reports based solely on another website instead of on the validity of the reporter like COLL and Indianlover, I have seen quite a few girls on the other site that have been REAL and honest.

Yet this website continues to discriminate against very good ladies who for no fault of their own are victim to such prejudice. All i can say is come on guys use a bit of common sense and do due diligence.

Please note both Lola and samantha both came from this site and whilst lola may potentially fall into slightly being misrepresentative as stated previously by other members these girls do not do their own pages and sometimes if you want a particular service you need to check via phone or text.

Also please note that dreamweaver volvic etc etc have ALL had good experiences and like other sites can be prone to rogue people.
