The Premises:

Her own pleasant and clean house easily on the outskirts of the city and very easily accessible from the A19

The Lady:

A tiny little pocket rocket - stands at just 5.1 but is perfectly formed. Very attractive with a beautiful smile which regularly changes from being dazzling to being cheeky

The Story:

I'm loathed to use the other place as a reference point for identifying a woman to punt with - there are so many disappointments and dead ends there and I do not have a good track record with it. But it had been a really hard couple of weeks and I needed some company and on this day it seemed the only way to do it. But I approached the whole thing with something of a heavy heart and no real expectations. However I had a bit of a gut instinct that seeing Natasha was worth the risk and so it proved. So much so that it is a good while since I have written an FR but I thought she deserved one.

There's been a good degree of discussion recently about what makes a perfect punt - is it a good looking woman? Is it good sex? Well you get both with Natasha. But for me the main requisite is personality and Natasha has that in spades. She is funny, friendly, enthusiastic and in short just bubbles over with life. I was probably a little withdrawn when knocking on her door (as I said had a hard time recently) but she really brought me back to life.

In short Natasha is a beautiful woman who is very good at sex and has a winning personality - frankly by the end of the punt if she had tried to sell me double glazing I would probably have bought it off her because she is so persuasive.

I would recommend her to anyone who likes real down to earth attractive women.
