The Premises:

Set in an industrial area. Access is via steep metal outside stairs and is not at all discrete. The area was busy probably because of the time of day and so felt safe. Waiting outside on the balcony for the door to be answered is in full public view so is not for the shy type.

Inside looks as if it is being modernised because there were people working in rooms further down the passage and there was the smell of new plaster. Shown into a room that was dreary but functional. In the corner stood in darkness was a shower unit looking rather like an abandoned TARDIS. The bed linen was cheap and course.

The Lady:

Sarah I would guess is in her early fifties. She is of medium height and has a large bust and part shaven below. Her bust is still fairly firm for her age. She told me that she had only been at TOPS for a few weeks and before that she worked in Swindon.

The Story:

I choose Sarah because she was the lady nearest to my own age (the other being a 20 something old stick insect from eastern europe). She wore a bra top, knickers and stockings, the latter were left on hurrah!. I settled for a quickie (sex only). After quickly yet gently arousing me which at my advanced years is no mean feat it was on with the rubber and sex in mish which was very enjoyable. Sarah pilled me right down onto her for full entry and made sure that I was completely empty before removing herself from under me. Although the chit chat was not great Sarah was always cheerful and polite.

For the more mature person in a rush a good punt.
