The Premises:

Very dowdy and dimley lit council flat in a run down block behind the Magistrate's Court, however it was clean. Close to bus routes and meter parking at ?2-40 per hour right out side.

The Lady:

White Irish woman in her late fifties, possibly older. At first I thought that she was the maid, but I was disappointed to find that she was the "girl". At this point I should have walked, but having made a considerable effort to get this far ??

What at first looked like reasonable breasts, but soon discovered that they were backed with possibly the most solid implants I have ever encountered.

The Story:

Service for ?40 was very, very basic. Kept her skirt and top on, just removing her briefs and when asked popping her breasts out over the top of her bra. Kept on about this was all you got for ?40 but when I made a return visit for more money ?..

Well there will definitely not be a return visit. I get very much better service for this price with much younger and amenable girls, in particular look at my Tickles reports.

I'm still feeling very disgusted with myself for going with her. Avoid!
