The Premises:

A secure location in a well to do residential area. Her flat is exceptionally clean and furnished very tastefully.

The Lady:

Candy looks just like her photos! She was well presented in skirt top and heels.

The Story:

Candy is a remarkable woman who instantly made me feel at ease. In no time at all we were chatting over a glass of wine like old friends. She is very well read and articulate. She is no clock watcher and the time flew by and I was well over the time that I had booked. However I know that you the punting public are not just interested in her book shelves etc. Once through into her bedroom we had sex in various positions which was excellent. Candy is not OTT with her performance which I know some people find off putting. We had a rest for a wee while before round two, we had sex again and Candy encouraged me to finish off over "the twins" as she calls them! After this I recovered and left.

Candy is a consummate professional and an excellent GFE experience which she will probablt tailor to suit her customer. She would be an ideal companion for dinner dates or longer if thats the sort ofthing you are into.
